GOVSEC ANNOUNCES HOMELAND SECURITY FINANCE FORUM SPEAKERS
Dynamic Companies in the Homeland Security Arena to Present to Market Investors, Advisors

FALLS CHURCH, Va. – March 12, 2010 – GovSec, produced by 1105 Government Information Group, the leading provider of integrated information and media for the government information technology (IT) market, today announced the panelists for the Homeland Security Finance Forum, taking place during GovSec on Tuesday, March 23, 2010 at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center in Washington, D.C.

Featured speakers include:

Anthony H. Anikeeff, Partner, Williams Mullen

Mr. Anikeeff brings legal expertise and advice to the Forum. Mr. Anikeeff is a member of Williams Mullen's government contracts practice. His responsibilities encompass counseling, litigation, trial and appellate work. Mr. Anikeeff represents domestic and foreign companies with respect to conducting business with the federal and state governments.

Thomas A. Cellucci, PhD, MBA, Chief Commercialization Officer, Science and Technology Directorate, Department of Homeland Security (DHS)

Dr. Cellucci's participation in the event will reinforce the DHS Science and Technology Directorate's outreach to establish and foster mutually beneficial relationships with the private sector that help facilitate cost-effective and efficient product/service and technology development efforts.

Robert R. Rubin, Partner, Stronghold Advisors

Mr. Rubin will offer his expertise on acquisitions, recapitalizations and other forms of financial transactions. He is a Partner of Stronghold Advisors and is one of the firm's senior merger and acquisition advisors. He has more than 25 years of corporate finance experience in Fortune 100 and entrepreneurial environments, as well as a broad range of industry experience.

The goal of the Homeland Security Finance Forum is to match pre-selected high-growth companies seeking capital, contemplating an acquisition, a recapitalization or another form of transaction with active investors in the government, defense and homeland security markets.

"We are delighted that such a strong list of companies have elected to present at the Homeland Security Finance Forum in its inaugural year," said Douglas Lloyd, Founder and CEO of VB/Research. "This event provides the ideal catalyst for the public and private sector to network and build relationships. The support of our panelists adds further weight to the importance of events like this to accelerate innovation and growth in the sector.”

Ten companies will be presenting at the Forum. For information on attending the Homeland Security Finance Forum, please contact Rashmi Nelson at 516-801-0536.
