1105 MEDIA ACQUIRES FEDERAL EMPLOYEES NEWS DIGEST
Expansion in Paid Information Products

CHATSWORTH, Calif. – October 15, 2007 – 1105 Media, Inc., announced today it has acquired Federal Employees News Digest, Inc. (“FEND”), whose assets include Federal Employees News Digest, Federal Employees Almanac, Federaldaily.com, and Fedsoup.com. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed. The FEND publications and websites become part of the 1105 Government Information Group, led by President and Group Publisher, Anne Armstrong.

“We are committed to the government market and its people. These products address an important part of the workplace by providing vital information on the pay, benefits, and other data that government professionals need every day,” said Armstrong. “We look forward to building relationships with this new audience.”

“I am confident that the new owners will preserve the quality of Federal Employees News Digest products and continue my family’s work to bring vital information to federal employees,” said Linda Young Gsell, President, FEND.

“We are excited to expand the offerings of our Government Information Group in this fashion. We view this as a first step in delivering paid information, as well as stepping beyond the realm of technology.” said Neal Vitale, President and CEO of 1105 Media, Inc. “We believe this transaction will allow us to serve the government marketplace with a wider range of relevant content.”

FEND is a leading provider of books, newsletters, and other information services to employees of the federal government and the U.S. Postal Service. It publishes the weekly Federal Employees News Digest, the annual Federal Employees Almanac, and many other books, including titles on retirement, pay and benefits and career management. FEND’s offices are located in Herndon, Virginia.

Natasha Swarup of Indico Corporation initiated, negotiated, and managed this transaction on behalf of FEND.
